LITURGY OF THE WORD:

In today's Gospel, Jesus had a single goal: to fulfill what He was called to be and do. He began His "journey to Jerusalem" with urgency, telling His disciples what they must do to follow Him. He warned His disciples – and He warns us – not to be distracted in our calling by life's ordinary demands or the possibility of discomfort, pain or death. Perhaps we can examine our own lives to see what we need to set aside and leave behind in order to follow Jesus more closely.
