PARISH LIFE:

- Real Estate - Deb Kehrer's house will be for rent

FINANCE COUNCIL:

- Dan Love: 12 days away from turning in tickets for the drawing, make sure everyone has a reminder to get them turned in

COMMITTEE REPORTS:

Building and Maintenance

- Roof: having trouble coordinating with Kehrer's. The old roof must be torn off before the new rubber roof from Kehrer's can be finished. They said they were going to get it finished this week.
- Cemetery: Concrete slab was cracked by Illinois Power, Ameren paid $950, and Kohnen Concrete fixed it for $50.
- Flagpole was cracked: the church paid $550 but the Knights of Columbus is going to reimburse the church. Plaque will be under the pole.
- Toennies has not moved the vent: he will do a better price when he can put it in on his time

Education:

- PSR starts on Monday the 20th
- Only 1 MD student
- Classes will be combined so each class has 2 teachers
- Confirmation this year - last year of it by ourselves
- Look for help for Sunday School!

OLD BUSINESS:

- Nettie and Steve met with Ameren for the vegetation easement- sent them a letter saying it wasn't worth it
- Wurmart- hoping we can get the word out for new date

NEW BUSINESS:

- Holy Childhood is Mascoutah HS- one night retreat "Reboot" Wednesday October 24th from 7-9 PM
Everyone is invited, $15 a person adult and youth!
- We will have the election committee work on getting nominations for the vote in December or January to replace Jim, Stephanie, and Kris Anne.
