

PARENT/STUDENT COMMITMENT
(Students already in Faith Formation)

FOR

St. Damian Catholic Faith Formation Program

The purpose of the Church's educational ministry is to make a person's faith in God more alive and active. Religious education, therefore, becomes more than sharing information and memorizing answers. It is the gradual initiation into a lifestyle that also includes worship, service and a morality modeled on the life of Jesus. It involves the student in the Church's mission, which is also the mission of Jesus calling us to bring about God's Kingdom.

Parents, by word and example, are the primary role models and educators of their children. Our parish seeks to assist parents in this task by providing a formal program of religious education. Program goals of building faith communities and passing on the treasures of our Catholic heritage are areas where parents, catechists and students can work together.

Commitment and cooperation are necessary in this educational endeavor, therefore, you and your family are asked to review the expectations, attendance and behavioral requirements outlined in the Policy Handbook. Please read these carefully and thoughtfully with your child/children and sign below.

I have read and agree to abide by the requirements and expectations of the St. Damian Catholic Faith Formation Program
